

Is this America? Do we still have a 1st Amendment? Isn't competition at the heart of our economic system? If you answer affirmatively, don't you agree that the NAB's selfish, monopolistic (use of public radio frequencies) request must be rejected? I hope you agree since many of us are starting to question the negative fundamental changes that big money seems to be sowing in this great nation of ours.